AI Quick Rules: one page

Maple & Birch Bookkeeping (SAMPLE) · Version 1.0 · 2026-11-02

> SAMPLE: fictional office. "Maple & Birch Bookkeeping" is made up to show what a Clear Rules client document looks like. This is general guidance, not legal advice. Clear Rules Cyber Security makes no promise of compliance with any law, insurance result, or security outcome.

Use only: Microsoft 365 Copilot (company login) and ChatGPT Team (company workspace). Nothing else for work.

OK to type in: public information, general questions, our own templates, anonymized examples.

Never type or upload:

- client or staff names, SINs, addresses, account numbers
- tax slips, payroll, CRA letters, bank statements
- passwords, MFA codes, banking or CRA logins

Always check: numbers, tax rules, and deadlines against the real source before anything leaves the office.

Money rule: never change banking details or pay because of an email, text, or call alone. Call back on the number on file.
