Report-a-Concern Form (AI and data)

Maple & Birch Bookkeeping (SAMPLE)

> SAMPLE: fictional office. "Maple & Birch Bookkeeping" is made up to show what a Clear Rules client document looks like. This is general guidance, not legal advice. Clear Rules Cyber Security makes no promise of compliance with any law, insurance result, or security outcome.

Fill this in the same day and give it to the Policy Owner. A prompt, honest report won't be punished. Don't paste the sensitive information itself into this form. Describe it.

1. Your name and role: _____
2. Date and time it happened / you noticed: _____
3. What happened? (tick) - [ ] Client or staff information went into an AI tool it shouldn't have - [ ] Used an unapproved tool or personal account - [ ] Suspicious email, call, text, or voice (possible impersonation or payment fraud) - [ ] AI output was wrong and may have reached a client, CRA, or a bank - [ ] Other: _____
4. Which tool or channel? _____
5. What kind of information was involved? (types only, e.g. "one client's SIN and address") _____
6. How many people's information might be involved? _____
7. What have you done so far? (e.g. deleted the chat, didn't reply to the caller) _____

Policy Owner use only

- Received: _____ · Contained (steps taken): _____
- Real risk of significant harm? [ ] No [ ] Yes [ ] Unsure, get advice. Reason: _____
- If yes: notify the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Alberta without unreasonable delay (PIPA), and notify affected individuals if the Commissioner requires it. Where PIPEDA applies, report to the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada and notify affected individuals. Consider legal advice. Date(s) notified: _____
- Lessons / policy change needed: _____ · Closed on: _____

Keep this form, whether or not the breach was reported, for at least 24 months.